1. Karl Horn, secretary for organization at the Munich headquarters of the KPD of Bavaria for the Berlin youth rally. Hans Neutzel, a member of the SPD who is employed at the office of the VVN, is responsible for the transportation of FDJ members as far as the zonal border. Horn has stated that prospective participants are instructed to apply for interzonal passes through the proper channels, as the KPD has been unofficially promised the necessary permits. (The authority which would issue these passes was not identified.) If the permits should be denied, he said, the young people will travel to the zonal border and cross illegally in groups or individually; at a suitable place in the American Zone they will be "ferried" across the border by their comrades from the Russian Zone. All participants from Bavaria will carry identification certificates furnished by headquarters. Horn expects that there will be a large contingent from Bavaria, including many "red Falken" in spite of the ban imposed by the SPD.
2. FDJ headquarters from Brandenburg has fixed the quota for Kreis Zauch-Belzig for the Whitsun rally at 2,400 from the FDJ, 500 sports participants, and 100 Young Pioneers. The FDJ of this area must raise 45,000 marks to finance the trip. Kreis Osthavelland is to send 2,000 FDJ members. Many will make the trip by truck; the truck drivers have strict instructions to choose a route which will by-pass the western sectors of Berlin.
3. Strong opposition on the part of parents developed against the projected rally when, early in April, FDJ functionaries publicly declared that the FDJ would force its way into West Berlin without regard for the police ban. This opposition was a principal reason why the FDJ leaders revised their plans and emphasized that no measures of a violent nature would be taken.
